

Weekly Outings

Claypit Creek, Hartshorne Woods

Meet at: Claypit Creek parking lot

Directions: 239 Locust Ave., Rumson

Coming from Locust Point Road (which is what Navesink River Road turns into), take a right onto Locust Ave.

Coming from 36, look for Claypit Creek on your left.

Parking:

Description of Painting Locations:

Parking is free and there are porta johns and water views (where the light is working with us), trees, and a few old houses. Something for everyone.

Hartshorne Woods is very large. This is only one access point, but a great one. There are some great views of the Oceanic Bridge from other points in the park, but they have very limited parking and, after Superstorm Sandy, the road has been closed.

To see a brochure of Hartshorne Woods, click on the link below:

<http://www.monmouthcountyparks.com/page.aspx?id=2524>